

You are cordially invited to attend the Department of Industrial Relations Occupational Safety & Health Appeals Board Seminar

Making the Case

A series of workshops from the Occupational Safety & Health Appeals Board

Hear from Board representatives how to present a case to the Appeals Board to assure a fair resolution of workplace safety issues

Who should attend?

- Lawyers and health and safety professionals
- Construction contractors
- Union representatives
- Farm labor contractors
- DIR division employees and employer representatives
- Anyone who appears before the Appeals Board

Topics may include:

- Preparation—knowing your case
- Presenting evidence
- Putting the best evidence first
- What is conclusory evidence?
- Credibility—the most common pitfall?

"This workshop is a great opportunity for all parties appearing before the Board to learn about the appeals process. Our system of checks and balances allows people to bring their cases before the Appeals Board to ensure they are resolved in a fair and equitable way."

*Candice Traeger
Chairman, Cal/OSHA Appeals Board*
